CHILDREN BEATEN CLAIM

Ghastly Bruises and Welts Exhibited by Boy and Girl at Hospital

FATHER AND WOMAN CHARGED AS FELONS

Purported Stepmother of Kiddies Flees City As Officers Seek Her

Showing the dire effects of weeks of undernourishment, bordering on starvation, and with their bodies and faces a mass of bruises, a young boy and a girl were patients at the county hospital here today, while their father was a prisoner and a woman they had believed was their step-mother was being sought, both on charges of having been felonious responsible for their condition.

The father, Floyd E. Hatch, about 45 years old, 120 East Edinger street, was formally accused by county and juvenile authorities as being a party to asserted beatings of the tots and the purported starvation of little Alta May, aged 6, and Clyde Ernest Hatch, 8.

Mrs. Bertha Phares, posing for more than a year as the tots' step-mother, was being sought by authorities here holding a warrant for her arrest. Taking with her two children of a former marriage, Frederick, aged 11, and Robert, aged 9, the woman was seen leaving at dusk yesterday in an automobile owned by the man with whom she had been living as his wife.

The purported "Mrs. Hatch," according to R. R. Miller, probation officer, had been seen by neighbors to strike the Hatch children in the face with her fists. Miller said she had been linked to the case as directly responsible for many of the ghastly welts spotting the children's bodies.

Names in Complaint
 Both Mrs. Pares and Hatch were named in a complaint filed this morning charging contributing to the delinquency of minor children, stipulating neglect, cruelty and depravity.

When the authorities went to the Hatch home this morning, however, they found the neat, virtually new, home vacant.

Under questioning before Deputy District Attorney this morning, Hatch admitted he was not married to Mrs. Phares, but that they were living as man and wife.

Thus was brought to light here today what officials who investigated said was one of the most pitiful, yet sordid cases of asserted juvenile mistreatment that had ever come to their attention, either in Santa Ana or elsewhere.

To Miller, little Alta Hatch, 6,

DOHENY READY TO RETURN LEASE ON U. S. OIL LANDS

WASHINGTON, Jan. 26.—E. L. Doheny, lessee of two naval oil reserve lands, offered today to cause cancellation of his contract leases at any time Congress may desire.

Doheny testified Thursday that he loaned former Secretary of the Interior Fall—from whom he obtained the leases—$100,000 on a personal unsecured note.

The offer to cancel was made in a statement read to the senate public lands committee this afternoon by Doheny's counsel, Gavin McNab of San Francisco.

After McNab had presented Doheny's offer, the note which James W. Zevely said yesterday he obtained from Fall in return for a $25,000 loan was submitted to the committee.

The note was offered by G. T. Stanford, counsel for Harry F. Sinclair, who leases Teapot Dome. It read:

"May 28, 1923.
 "Twelve months after date I promise to pay James W. Zevely the sum of $25,000."

Senator Walsh of the investigating committee insisted that the note be left in possession of the committee for a few days.

When asked about books of the Hyva corporation, a Sinclair concern, Stanford said he had cabled Sinclair in Europe asking for authority to produce the books to the committee.

Archie Roosevelt, son of the late President Theodore Roosevelt, was then called to the stand and gave practically the same testimony that was offered on his previous appearance.

Coolidge Urges Action

President Coolidge today took a further step in his investigation of the Teapot Dome scandal by ordering the Secretary of the Interior to search the records of leasing of naval oil reserves to discover whether the leases should be annulled.

Mr. Coolidge, it was stated today on his behalf, will gather all the facts concerning the oil leases as rapidly as possible and when he understood to have gone to Mexico.

A derrick and equipment worth $21,000 remains on the land, but, according to Thompson, is well covered with claims of labor and material men.

The lease covered 140 acres of citrus groves, owned by the following plaintiffs:

Mr. and Mrs. George L. Bates, Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Blackburn, Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Knuth, Dr. and Mrs. Mark C. Myers, Mr. and Mrs. C. F. Parker, Mr. and Mrs. Otto Naumann, Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Perry, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Pister, Kate, Nellie and Auelia Pister, Mr. and Mrs. L. F. Robinson, Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Smiley, Mr. and Mrs. C. F. Talmage, Mr. and Mrs. B. M. Thomson and Mr. and Mrs. Jerome Westfall.

On his neck big patches of skin had been wrenched off by clawing fingers. Over his body were contusions and great bruises, some blue and some others, presumably freshly inflicted, red and sore.

The body and head of the little girl similarly were a mass of hospital attendants appealed to him to tell him the photograph had come to take his picture he jumped up from his chair in the long cement aisle and said:

"Gee, how do you like my flowers?"

On the table was a bouquet

Women Say Tots Ate Garbage; Boy Declares He Was Choked

"My mother hit me in the face with a broomstick and then choked me. She said she would like to see us both in hell."

Coming haltingly from the lips of Clyde Ernest Hatch, 8 years old, that statement, in the opinion of authorities, today comprised one of the strongest indictments against the woman who has lived with his father as his wife, and who county officials today were seeking after she had fled from their Edinger-street home last night after the children had been taken to the county hospital and Hatch arrested.

A bright little boy, his face covered with great blue marks and his nose was twisted to one side purportedly from the effect of mishandling at home.

"It is putting it lightly," Miller

these innocent and trusting little

Upon complaint of several neighbors, Miller and Deputy District

Attorney C. N. Mozley went to the

Hatch home, just off South Main street on Edinger, late yesterday afternoon. Here they met at first the rebuff of Mrs. Hatch, they said, but shortly the investigation was pursued without further difficulty.

"We found the girl and her broth-

CHAUFFEUR OF FILM BEAUTY IS NABBED

Whether Gloria Swanson, beautiful motion picture star, and her chauffeur, had fallen into the toils

of the city's net spread for traffic law violators was the mystery that caused more than a mild sensation

at the city hall here today.

Motorcycle Officer H. D. Jaynes who arrested a chauffeur, Robert E. Brown, 6427 Yucca street, Hollywood, for speeding past the intersection of Seventeenth street and

Grand avenue at the rate of 37 miles an hour, said that the handsome and bejeweled young woman,

riding with a male companion in the rear seat of the limousine, was Gloria Swanson.

City Recorder W. F. Heathman, who fixed Brown's bail at $50 for his appearance in court here Febrary

6, and who is known as something of a "movie" fan, said

positively, however, she was not the silver sheet scintillant.

The crowd that gathered in Heathman's little courtroom and caught a glimpse of the woman and her companions, including Frank Meline, "Sunset and Cahuenga streets, Los Angeles, who, driving another car, also was arrested by Jaynes on a similar charge, was divided in opinion.

The woman herself, accompan-

ing her chauffeur into court

simply signed the dotted line for the owner of the "pinched" automobile, as "Miss Swanson."

Officer Jaynes said that at the time the limousine was halted

"Miss Swanson," expressed in no uncertain terms her dissatisfaction

at being halted by the law, and directed her chauffeur to sing no papers. It was this asserted action that prompted Jaynes to bring the entire party here to appear before

Heathman.

Mrs. Elizabeth Golden, mother of the new police magistrate, sat on the bench with her son and immediately upon his being sworn into office put her arms about his neck and kissed him. It was she who urged him to run for office and who canvassed the city for votes in his behalf.

Daniel Maher, who was one of Judge Golden's campaign managers, acted as master of ceremonies. The oath of office was administered by Judge Daniel S. O'Brien.

Police Judge Sylvester McAtee,

whom Judge Golden succeeds,

surrendered his bench gracefully

in his behalf.

Oil Worker Kills
Self; Despondent

MARTINEZ, Jan. 26.—Earl R. Hill of Concord, an oil worker, committed suicide at his home by shooting himself through the heart with a revolver. Hill, according to Deputy Sheriff J. M. Joseph, who investigated the case, had just finished helping his wife with some household work when he went into the front bedroom of their home and fired the fatal shot. Mrs. Hill rushed from the kitchen and found her husband dying. He suffered from fits of despondency, according to his wife, which is the reason assigned for his act. He was 40 years of age, and is survived by the widow and three children.

here, although thousands of men will be employed. A statement, signed by publishers of leading Pueblo newspapers and reaching here today, stated that there are sufficient men within a radius of fifty miles of the city to supply all help needed, and that it was believed an injustice would be done to other men if additional workmen from remote sections were urged by employment agencies to go to Pueblo.

Announcement was made today

ments relate to man's duty to his fellow men; they guard the inalienable social rights of the individual. "Thou Shalt Not Kill." Here God put into four words a commandment that modern lawyers have extended into books and that, too, at the expense of both strength and clearness. It will be noticed that no arguments accompany this pronouncement; it is self-evident and needs only to be stated.

There never has been a day since it was written that it was not needed; it is needed today with all our enlightenment. There is a shocking disregard for the value of human life that calls for a remedy. Life that is mysterious—intangible, invisible, and yet eternal—which man can take but cannot restore, is held in contempt all over the world, even in our own beloved land.

"Thou Shalt Not Steal." The eighth commandment is a recognition of the right of property—a right next in importance to the sacred right of home, and only third in importance to the right to life.

The daily dispatches tell of the constant taking of human life, sometimes as the result of a quarrel over trifling matters, sometimes as the result of disappointment in love or friendship, sometimes it is self destruction as the result of mortification or despair. But whatever the cause, it is the gravest of crimes; it ushers a human being into eternity.

The abolition of the saloon and the enthrallment of woman, coming at the same time, make it possible to secure for the safeguarding of the home legislation that was impossible before. The time is ripe for the awakening of increased respect for the seventh commandment.

"Thou Shalt Not Steal." The eighth commandment is a recognition of the right of property—a right next in importance to the sacred right of home, and only third in importance to the right to life.

No emphasis need be placed upon the criminality involved in stealing upon a small scale—this is universally condemned; but there is a tendency to decrease the severity of the condemnation as the amount stolen increases. Petty larceny defines the small stealing that no one defends; grand larceny describes the larger robberies that are more difficult to punish, while the word "glorious" is the only term that seems to fittingly describe the pillage that nations sometimes engage in against other nations.

It is well to remember that the Lord did not draw any fine spun distinctions upon the amount taken or the number who join in the theft. "Thou shalt not steal" is no respecter of persons; the moral principle which it announces cannot be overwhelmed by a crowd or by the amount involved.

Guarding the Home.

"Thou Shalt Not Commit Adultery." The seventh commandment guards the integrity of the home by putting a ban upon the one act of the Universal Relationship.

In the matter of Sunday legislation, it has been found that the controversy is not so much between those who desire to have the day observed as a day of rest and those who do not themselves desire a rest day; it is between those on one side who are laboring disinterestedly for the public welfare and those, on the other side, who seek to convert the Sabbath day into a day of money making, just as the liquor question resolved itself into a fight between the defenders of the home and those who profited by the manufacture and sale of the vital spirit which is known as life.

February Bride Again
Made Honoree at a Surprise Shower

For the second time in the week was Miss Evelyn Bauman, bride-to-be of early February, honored by her former associates at the local Gas office, last night when she was surprised by her friends, at the home of Miss Letitia Stowe, 322 East Camille street.

Asked to drop in for an informal evening "just visiting" and discussing details of the approaching wedding and the new home to be established at Costa Mesa when Miss Bauman becomes the bride of Jack May, the honoree was completely surprised to find the merry Gas office group assembled in readiness to greet her arrival.

Miss Stowe had arranged a series of amusing guessing contests for the evening's entertainment. The rooms of the home were made gay with pink and white posies and at the refreshment hour when guests found their places at the pretty table, they found massed pink roses smiling in the soft glow of pink tapers. Miss Stowe assisted by her mother, Mrs. Fred A. Stowe, served the delectable little supper in two courses.

The most interesting event of the entire evening however, came when Miss Bauman was asked to trace a tangled web of ribbon to its end where she was fortunate enough to find a beautiful gift of cut crystal from her assembled friends, the hostess, Miss Stowe and her mother, Mrs. Fred Stowe, Mrs. B. F. McBurtry and her mother, Mrs. J. F. Dooley, Mrs. Maud Bauman, mother of the honoree, Mrs. Victor Baird, the Misses Isabel Wylie, Ruth Vieira, Ruth Walker, Emma Adams, Etta Herner and Margaret Wylie.

Spanish Supper Scores Big Success

Many guests congregated at the First Methodist church last night to enjoy a Mexican supper arranged by the women of the little Mexican E. M. church and presented in the banquet room of the larger sister-church.

All who attended were enthusiastic in regard to the appetizing dishes of the menu and the musical entertainment which enlivened the supper hours. Tamales, frijoles and chile con carne were among the typical dishes served and all were prepared by master hands so that the result was highly enjoyable to all the patrons.

A bevy of pretty señoritas in the costumes of old Spain aided by two youths of the party, Fidel Garcia and Amaro Ramirez, served the supper. They were the Misses Faustina Lucero, Delphina Lopez, Lelia Sisinfante, Lydia and Jovita Gonzales, Rosa Delgado and Esther Garcia.

Music by an orchestra directed by Sol Gomez and made up of the director, Jesus Garcia, Esteban Rodriguez, Eulario Orosco and his two sons, was rendered throughout the evening while vocal solo were given by Miss Eulisa Pereya and Jesus Garcia and Miss Delphina Lopez played a piano number. The latter also read an essay on "Mexico" which was highly interesting to all who heard it.

Proceeds from the supper will be devoted to repairing and re-decorating the Mexican E. M. church in readiness for the inter-denominational convention of Mexican Sunday schools to meet there in the spring.

An interesting finale to the evening was the call for a minister to officiate at the wedding of a Huntington Park couple, Miss Lena Veneta Macy and Benjamin Franklin Browning. As the Rev. Will A. Betts of the First M. E. church was ill and unable to be present, the Rev. Benito Garcia volunteered his services and the quietly impressive wedding ceremony was performed in the minister's study at the church.

The many friends in this city of Miss Audrey Isbell and the admirers of her talent as a pianist and reader were interested party (alliteratively speaking) in her return from a recital trip as far east as Chillicothe, Illinois which was taken as a member of the "California Quintette" sent out by the Santa Fe railroad.

Miss Isbell, the three members of the Stearns-Taylor trio and Miss Cornelia Glover, Los Angeles contralto, left late in December on the trip with their first stop, the largest auditorium in the city was utilized for the recital to which railroad employees were first admitted with the remaining seats open to townspersons.

At Albuquerque the armory was used and the program of songs, readings and instrumental numbers was given before an audience of over 3000. In Canadian, Texas, Miss Isbell discovered old friends and they arranged for her appearance at a called assembly at the high school where she gave a program of pianolouques.

The party disbanded at Chicago, Miss Isbell going to her childhood home at Elgin for a brief visit ere returning to her Orange home and the other members of the quintette remaining for more extended visits before returning to California.

Miss Isbell plans to resume her classes in expression and music at an early date.

Those having automobiles will be asked to take the members who are walking and all join in a happy pilgrimage to survey their future club home.

To Open Coolidge Offices Wednesday

Assisting Mrs. Covington in her hostess duties were the other members of the official family, Mesdames Moffett Rhodes, T. W. Oglesby, W. A. Obarr, C. W. McNaught, George Wright, C. N. Mozley, Henry Donan, C. C. Widlow, Susan Sweet, J. S. McGill and Miss Hester Covington.

Over sixty guests called to enjoy the affair and a brief but entertaining program was given after all joined in repeating the twenty-third Psalm. Miss Miriam Young then gave an enjoyable piano solo, followed by Miss Ella Barger in a charming vocal solo.

At the tea hour, trays prettily adorned with sweet peas, were used for serving the dainties of the menu which brought the unusually pleasant afternoon to a close.

A total of 26,536 miles of federal aid roads was completed by June 30, 1923, according to the United States Department of Agriculture.

Hide All Evidence of a Waistline By Your Frock
With Lines Devoid of Any Suggestion of Curves

Where shall the waistline be placed this season? A simple question. The answer is even simpler. It can't be placed anywhere because it is—fashionably—non-existent.

You may have one, but for this season you will not admit it. You will hide any slight suspicion of curve by a straightline frock.

All lines are straight.

seams are either entirely straight or as nearly so as possible. When they break it is not at the waist but at the hips.

The break in the line may be on one or both sides and may be marked with pleats, a slight drape or just a buckle or bow or ribbon.

The models sketched show the new silhouette both as it is straight and as it is when the line is broken at the hips.

U. S. VICTOR IN OPENING OF GAMES

Jewtraw Wins 500 Meters
Ice Skating Race As Olympics Begin

CHAMONIX, France, Jan. 26.—Charles Jewtraw of Lake Placid, the big sprint star of the American team, won the 500 meters ice skating race, the first event on the 1924 program.

America's colors, as the winner of the first event of the 1924 Olympic games, were run up on the flagstaff here today.

The race was contested against time and Jewtraw won first place with the fast time of 44 seconds.

Oscar Olsene of Norway, finished second with a mark of 44 1-5 seconds; Thunberg of Finland, and Larsen of Norway finished in a tie for third place in the time of 44 4-5 seconds.

Enthusiasm Great.

Great enthusiasm prevailed when the games actually started. Celebrities from all over Europe, wintering at the fashionable resorts in the vicinity, were in the stands when the call was sounded and the first of the athletes came out of their clubhouses.

When the American team appeared in white sweaters and tights with the neat United States emblem shining on their breasts, a great cheer went up. It had been feared that the Americans would not compete.

The controversy that arose when the committee announced that each team could have only two rubbers and trainers in the dressing rooms was settled when William Taylor, manager of the American team, said:

Win Sans Trainer.
"We'll go out and win without a trainer if necessary."

The Americans had contended they should be permitted to use as many trainers as they saw fit as there is no provision to the contrary in the rules.

Before going to the starting line for the first heat, the American team took a couple of fast turns around the course and the speed of young Moore astounded some of the visitors. He was given a great cheer when he glided up to the starting line and an ovation went up when he finished first with a terrific burst of speed.

Steinmetz Second.

William Steinmetz of Chicago, was the only American who failed to win his heat. He finished second behind Epsen of Norway in the twelfth heat. The time was 44 1-5. The thirteenth heat was won by Bloomquist of Sweden in 45 1-5 seconds, and the fourteenth was won by Thunberg of Sweden in 44 4-5 seconds.

Skuatnab, of Finland, won the tenth heat in 46 2-5 seconds and Vellens, Finland, won the eleventh heat in 45 seconds.

Larsen of Norway won the sixteenth heat in 44 4-5 seconds, and Jewtraw made his winning time of 44 in the fifteenth heat against Gorman of Canada.

THELMA PATTON IS COUNTY NET CHAMP

Miss Thelma Patton, who upset all the dope in high school tennis circles here by defeating Miss Frances Crookshank, the Southern California Interscholastic singles champion, in a local tourney, again sprung a surprise by defeating Miss Dorothy Hetebrink, first player at Fullerton high school, yesterday afternoon, in the finals of a county invitation tournament.

Miss Patton is playing a steady, heady game and after taking a hard fought first set with a score of 7-5, won yesterday's second set at 6-0, bringing home the informal singles championship of the county.

In the same tournament, the Misses Josephine and Constance Crookshank, playing first doubles for Santa Ana, were defeated in the final by Miss Jean McGill and Miss Iona Biedfeldt of Fullerton, 6-2, 6-4.

FULLERTON DEFEATS LONG BEACH, 20-13

By outplaying the Long Beach high school basketball team in the second half, Fullerton prep quintet was able to down them yesterday, 20-13. During the first twenty minutes the two aggregations played even, the count being 6 all.

In the final half Fullerton displayed an unusual brand of floor-work, and showed remarkable ability in sinking the baskets.

The lineup: Long Beach (13) Fullerton (20). Tell F Richards; Dillon F Wilson; Hosson C Dowling; Conroy G Oswald; Leedon G Yorba. Substitutions—Eaton and Expanx.

Dancing will still continue at West Newport club house every Saturday night. Dysarts Orchestra. Phone 792-J, Santa Ana.

MAGNATES PAY FANCY FIGURES FOR RECRUITS

Billy Evans SAYS

In the spring of last year while I was in the Chicago club I noted the excellent physical condition of Collins. His speed on the bases stood out most. I commented on this feature, and with a smile he replied: "Never was in better shape in my life. Thought I was going to be with New York and wanted to go big, so I really started to condition myself at the close of last season. Hunting, light exercise and care as to my diet has put me in as good shape as I ever was."

The great work by Collins last year is proof of the belief he had in his own condition. He had one of the best years of his brilliant career.

Rumor has linked the name of Collins as Washington's new manager. The fact that Owner Griffith has such a fine player as Harris at second is one of the things that casts a bit of doubt on such a report. Harris, much younger than Collins, is one of the game's greatest second sackers. If Collins was a star outfielder instead of a second baseman it would make the report that Collins was to manage the club sound much more logical.

LOCALS DROP TO BOTTOM OF LEAGUE

Santa Ana high school's basketball team suffered its second league defeat of the present season at Whittier last night when the Poet high school quintette finished in front, 28 to 18. Score at half-time was 15 to 6 in favor of the winners.

Whittier had things much its own way in the first half but Ed Covington's outfit came to life in the final quarters and held its own in the scoring. McCaslin, Whittier forward, was high point man. Burns led for Santa Ana. The defensive work of Partridge of the Poets featured the contest.

In a preliminary match, the Whittier Class C five 'took' the local outfit of the same classification by the close score of 9 to 8. The lineup of the first team game: Whittier (28) Santa Ana (18) Barmore (9) Burns (9) McCaslin (14) F Bowe (2) Horton (4) C Anderson (2) Young (4) G Cook (4) Partridge (1) Lacy (1) Referee, McCord; umpire, Cox.

GENE SARAZEN WINS HAVERS MATCH, 3 UP

SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 26.—Gene Sarazen and Arthur Havers, professional golf champion, left for Los Angeles today where they will finish tomorrow their "unofficial world's professional championship" play.

At the end of the first 36 holes of the 72-hole match Sarazen was three up on the Englishman. The last 36 holes will be played in Los Angeles.

Sarazen won his lead despite what at times appeared to be an erratic game. Usually he took the holes on the green.

POLY CLASS B FIVE DEFEATED BY POETS

Coach Ray Atkinson's Santa Ana high school Class B basketball team today had .500 in the percentage column of the junior division of the Tri-county league.

The local quintette suffered its first reversal of the season on the Poly courts yesterday afternoon when the crack Whittier high school Class B team emerged victorious after a great scrap. The score was 20 to 16.

The Santa Ana lineup follows: Romo, Hurd and Beatty, forwards; Zaizer, center; Rodriguez, McCain and Meisinger, guards.

BILLY WELLS WINS.

ST. PAUL, Jan. 26.—Billy Wells, British welterweight, outpointed Jimmy Jones of Youngstown, Ohio, in a ten round no-decision contest here last night. Jones was booted by the crowd for his holding tactics. Wells took eight of the ten rounds.

GLASS FACTORY TO LOCATE IN FULLERTON

FULLERTON, Jan. 26.—Carrying out its policy of aiding in the industrial growth of Southern California as a whole, the Los Angeles Chamber of Commerce today announced that the Western Glass company of Streator, Illinois, is to build a modern factory near Fullerton.

The Western Glass company are large nationally known manufacturers of rolled and wire glass, and their new plant in Southern California will manufacture these products. Glass making is to begin early in the summer, it is announced.

This is considered a valuable addition to the industries in the Los Angeles district. In commenting on the bringing of new industries to Southern California, A. G. Arnall, industrial manager of the Los Angeles chamber said:

"It is the constant aim of the Los Angeles Chamber of Commerce to encourage industries to locate in Southern California. We feel that if a healthy industrial growth is fostered in the outlying districts near Los Angeles it is certain to reflect in the prosperity of Los Angeles and other Southern California communities as well."

42 SANTA ANA HIGH SCHOOL GIRLS JOIN CLUB TO HOLD WEEKLY SWIM IN PLUNGE

Forty-two high school girls enrolled yesterday in the new swimming club, organized at a meeting in the Y. W. C. A. here under the auspices of the Girls' league.

Miss Isabel Anderson, Girls' league advisor, explained that arrangements had been made in conjunction with the girls of the Huntington Beach high school, to reserve the Huntington Beach plunge every Tuesday afternoon.

Suggestions were made by the advisor as to membership in the club, emblems for club members, and the probability of some swimming meets with a big crowd in the spring.

Miss Thelma Patton was elected manager and Miss Axia Goodykoontz assistant manager. The first swim has been scheduled for Tuesday, February 5.

AUTOMOTIVE SECTION

SECTION TWO

SANTA ANA, CALIF., SATURDAY, JANUARY 26, 1924

PAGES SEVEN TO TWELVE

AUTOISTS FROM OTHER STATES MUST RENEW LICENSES

Delinquent Date on 1924 Plates February 1st If Permit Not Given

PENALTIES OUTLINED

California Registration Required Unless Other Application Made

Motorists visiting in California from outside states, and who have not renewed their licenses in their home states, must take out a California license by February 1 or pay a penalty of 100 per cent.

Out-of-state visitors with 1924 plates may secure permits for operating their cars in the state.

These statements, made by state motor vehicle department officials, were for the benefit of a number of local motorists, who, in some way, had gained the impression that they could not get a California license until after February 1.

Call Back Bond Order

According to Elmer Heidt, manager of the Santa Ana branch of the Auto Club of Southern California, the impression probably was the result of a situation that developed a couple of weeks ago, when the main office of the club issued instruction to branch offices not to issue plates to non-residents, pending determination of effects of certain features of the new law with reference to bonds being provided by out-of-state car owners.

The instruction was countermanded on the day following its issuance. Visitors must prove their ownership; otherwise they must provide $2000 bond, Heidt said.

Liable For Penalty

In virtually all other states of the nation the automobile license year opens January 1, Heidt said, adding that non-residents by February 1 will have had thirty days in which to secure new licenses. Their failure to obtain licenses makes it incumbent upon them to procure California plates he said.

Out-of-state motorists who were given permits for 1923 and which expired before the end of that year, must pay the California license tax for the last quarter of the year; 25 per cent additional, as a penalty, and get 1924 California license, Heidt declared. The branch manager said many visitors in this vicinity are liable for the tax for the last quarter of the 1923 license year.

Used Car Selling Average Learned

Selling prices for used automobiles in the last quarter of 1923 had a wide range from the average of $202.16, in the state of Iowa, to $778.06, in the state of Ohio, according to figures just made public by the headquarters of the National Automobile Dealers' Association today. These figures are a part of the big survey which has covered two years study in used car merchandising throughout the United States and was completed early in January. The complete report will be made as a part of the program for the seventh annual convention in Chicago January 29 and 30.

License No. 14 Given Driver Here 9 Years

George Peters, assistant cashier at the Orange County Trust and Savings bank, today had received automobile license plate No. 14, believed by him to be the lowest number issued to any resident of the county.

Peters has had this number for the past nine years, securing it in the first instance by special request.

Each year since he has forwarded his application to the motor vehicle department at least two months before maturity of the old license.

His application for the 1924 renewal went forward December 8, with a request that No. 14 be issued to him.

Peters has installed the new plate on his car.

3600 LICENSES ISSUED HERE BY CLUBS

Cash Receipts at Capital Total $100,000 Daily, Says W. H. Marsh

Approximately 3600 Orange county motorists have received new license plates through the service offered by the Auto club of Orange county and the Santa Ana branch of the Auto club of Southern California, reports from the club's offices revealed today.

Local issuance of plates is intended to relieve the main office at Sacramento of much work incidental to the mailing out of plates.

According to reports from Will H. Marsh, superintendent of the motor vehicle department, cash receipts amount to approximately $100,000 daily.

Confusion Results

Considerable confusion has resulted in renewing licenses for automobiles because names and addresses on the old registration certificates have faded out or become covered with grease and oil so as to make them illegible, Marsh says. As the old certificate must be presented when application for renewal is made, the official declared it imperative that names and addresses should be plainly written. Changes of address should also be noted.

In reply to numerous inquiries, the chief of the division announced this week that headlight adjustment certificates would not be required in renewing licenses. Those who have been told that this is necessary have been misinformed, he stated.

Marsh said that owners of motorcycles in California will this year pay a flat fee of $3 for registration.

For Motorcyclists

To renew a license for a motorcycle the owner should mail his fee and last year's certificate to Sacramento or present them either at Sacramento or any of the branch offices of the division.

Concerning trailers, Marsh said that every owner of a trailer must secure a pair of 1924 license plates and a registration certificate. The owner must also secure a weight certificate from a public weigher before making application and must tell the kind of tires on the trailer. If the trailer weighs less than 500 pounds a flat fee of $3 only will be charged, but if it weighs more the owner will be required to pay the regular weight fees for commercial vehicles.

LEAVENWORTH, Kan., Jan. 26.—In the county jail here August Blitz, Jr., pleaded with officials to permit him to enter the cell with his father.

"I want to kill him," the youth shouted as he caught sight of his father, August Blitz, sr., arrested by Sheriff G. M. Stringfellow in connection with the fatal wounding of Mrs. Blitz in Denver last August.

Blitz has refused to answer any questions put to him by Sheriff Stringfellow. Blitz for some time prior to the shooting of his wife had been confined at a Leavenworth sanitarium. He escaped from that institution and followed his wife to Denver. He had made several threats against her life before the shooting. Mrs. Blitz was a daughter of John Higgins of Eason, Kas.

TO PAVE ROAD LEADING INTO ARIZONA

According to N. T. Edwards of Orange, a member of the state highway commission, the call of the commission for bids for building a unit of the state highway in the Imperial valley means that 11.9 miles of road will be constructed as a link in the highway connecting up with roads in the adjoining state of Arizona.

The construction will consist of grading the road thirty feet wide and laying a surface of crushed rock twenty feet wide and four to seven inches thick.

Specifically, the work will start 2.1 miles east of the eastern end of the present plank road, and will extend eastward through the Yuma Indian reservation to the Colorado river bridge, opposite Yuma.

W. C. T. U. War On Dances Repulsed

SAN DIEGO, Jan. 26.—Efforts of the Women's Christian Temperance union and about twenty-one women residing east of Balboa park to have a new dance hall ordinance framed by a committee of citizens came to naught when the city council, by vote of 3 to 2, tabled their petitions.

The motion to "file" was made by Councilman Bruschi and seconded by Councilman Stewart, Bruschi, Weitzel and Stewart voted to table or "file" the papers, and Hellbron and Held voted to the contrary.

Held, who admitted that he "had never danced in his life," said he was perfectly willing for a committee of women to draw up an ordinance for the consideration of the council. Hellbron said the recent amendment to the dance hall ordinance, permitting minors to attend dance halls, should not have been applied to dancing resorts in the lower end of town.

This aroused the ire of Councilman Bruschi.

"Young man!" he shouted at Hellbron, "don't you jump on my end of town."

Hellbron replied that there is one dance hall on lower Fifth street and one on lower Fourth street that he wouldn't want his children to attend.

"That's up to the parents," said Bruschi. "If parents want to take their children to these places, blame the parents and not the children."

The manner in which Horey humbly handed DePalma over the dirt track created a sensation among the spectators, but the Italian speed king claimed that the dust clogged the sensitive carburetor adjustment he was using. Tomorrow will be another story, DePalma stated, for the track is being heavily coated with crude oil.

Nine events will be on the card, three of them for motorcyclists. The two-wheel mounted daredevils made a big hit with the huge crowd which attended the opening meet.

More than forty cars are entered for tomorrow's races.

EDDIE MEYER, Redlands speed king, holder of A. A. A. dirt track records, experienced serious eye trouble from the calcium chloride which was sprinkled on the course to lay the dust.

The calcium did not have nearly as much effect on the dust as it did Eddie's eyes. Meyer, like DePalma, will go out tomorrow to regain his lost prestige.

LAYS SHARE OF MOTOR DEATHS IN COUNTY TO 1-DAY-WEEK AUTOISTS

Riverside Coroner Tells of Fatality Increase, But San Bernardino Same

'NEW DEAL' SUGGESTED

Ease Off on Fines, Jails and Try 'Good Will to Men' Plan, Is Plea

BY HORACE FINE

(Register Automobile Editor)

Why were deaths from automobile accidents in Orange county, in 1923, 300 per cent greater than in 1922?

Reports to The Register by the coroners of Los Angeles, Riverside and San Bernardino counties reveal that the increase in those counties was not nearly so high as in this county.

There are no better highways in any county than in Orange county, and the increase cannot be attributed to faulty highways. However, it is possible that the better roads here are in a measure responsible—responsible by the fact that they induce speed.

Traffic on the highways of Orange county surely did not increase 300 per cent over that for 1922—that will not be conceded by any one. There was an increase in the volume of traffic, but not in the same proportion as the increase in deaths.

Experience Lacking

Careless driving and speeding must be responsible, along with the fact that the highways are congested at week-ends, due to the fact that thousands of the motorists of the Southland drive to resorts in the county or through the county to recreation points outside.

The "one-day-a-week" driver—the man or woman who drives only on Sunday—perhaps is responsible for many of the accidents. The man or woman who sits at the wheel of a car only one day in seven does not get the road experience of regular drivers. The result is that when the former gets into week-end jams he does not know how to handle his machine in times of peril. His judgment of distance, as a rule, isn't good.

Reporting for San Bernardino county, Coroner J. B. Hanna disclosed that deaths there in 1923 were the same as in 1922-1920. The coroner added, however, that other deaths resulted from injuries received in automobile accidents, but that he had no record because he did not hold inquests.

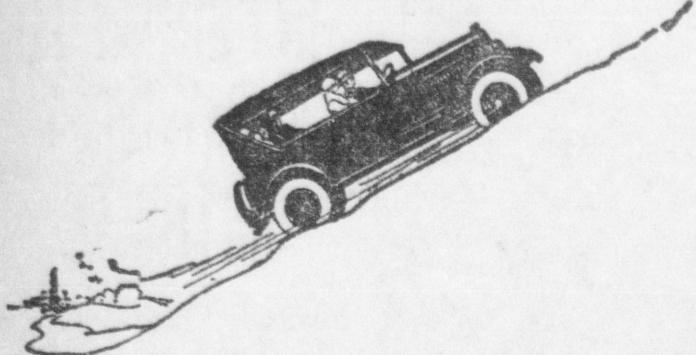

Riverside in Gain

Investigating his records at the request of The Register, C. S. Dickson, coroner of Riverside county, found that there were seven deaths in that county in 1922 and nineteen in 1923.

Frank A. Nance, coroner of Los Angeles county, last week, reported an increase of 13 per cent in Los Angeles city and 70 per cent in the county outside of the city.

C. C. Blanchard of this city today advanced a

RULER'S OFFICE WHITE WASHED SMALL ROOM

LONDON, Jan. 26.—Locally Abdul Krim, ruler and organized of the Rif tribesmen who are contesting Spanish supremacy in Morocco, is known as the "Sultan," although he is not of princely or royal blood—neither has his status any religious significance.

There is no pomp or ceremony about Abdul Krim. Dressed as an ordinary Rifman, he administers the affairs of state in a bare whitewashed room in one of the stone houses of Ajdir—with the easy reach of the guns of the Spanish fortress of Alhucemas. Here he receives the chiefs of the various Kabiles, and issues instructions for the assembling of the harkas.

That Abdul Krim has made some effort to run his "republic" on constitutional lines is evidenced by the appointment of "ministers" to assist him in the administration of the affairs of state. He, of course, acts as president.

There is a prime minister, a finance minister, and a minister devoid of any responsibility, as they refer all decisions of even minor importance, to Abdul Krim—and he is equal to deal with them.

Judge, politician, and soldier, this versatile dictator does not spare himself, and works sixteen hours out of the twenty-four.

This is no fierce and fanatical brigand of the hills—such as the cruelties ascribed to him might lead one to picture—but a man of exceptional intelligence, education, and knowledge of the world—a courteous Moorish gentleman capable of conversing on any subject you care to mention. He takes a great interest in European politics, regarding which he is extraordinarily well informed. The latest French and Spanish newspapers may be found on his table—even Bolshevik propaganda, translated into Arabic, finds its way to his headquarters.

4751 Veterans In New Jobs in 1923

SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 26.—Employment was found for 4751 jobless American war veterans in San Francisco during the year just ended by means of funds supplied by the Community Chest. It was announced by Harry E. Speas, president of the United Veterans' Council, which acted as the agency in obtaining work for the veterans. The council is formed of delegates from all American war veteran organizations in San Francisco.

Oratorio Society To Launch Study Tues. At Orange

The Orange County Oratorio society will hold its first rehearsal Tuesday at 7:30 p.m. at the Woman's club hall, 131 North Glassell street, Orange. The oratorio to be studied is Hayden's "Creation." The society hopes to give a public rendering of this oratorio some time in the spring. All who are interested in this kind of music are invited to join the society. Prof. F. C. Slabach, formerly director of the Milwaukee A'Capella choir, has been engaged to direct the oratorio.

INCREASE IN MOTOR DEATHS IN PAST YEAR

SAN DIEGO, who meets many automobileists in a business way, told me that hundreds of drivers have told him they regretted there was no other thoroughfare, except through Orange county, on the way to or from San Diego to Los Angeles.

"Now all automobileists are not thugs and law breakers. Many of the finest persons in this nation visit the Southland and should be given a kind reception, be encouraged to use our highways and discover the beauties of lovely Orange county."

"Would it not be greatly to the advantage of our hotels, and our business men, if these persons were encouraged to spend days or weeks with us, instead of filling motor cars so full of fear of the hidden motor cop that they are anxious to get through our county as soon as possible?"

Suggests 'Good Will'
"It is a well-known fact that motor cops are not infallible, and any one can sit in a judge's chair and before him. This, however, is not justice, and that is what our courts are supposed to dispense. Job said, "For the thing which I greatly feared is come upon me, and that which I was afraid of is come unto me."

"Admittedly, persecution and injustice, fines and imprisonments have failed to prevent accidents and fatalities in Orange county, and we are credited with a higher percentage than our neighbors. According to The Register, motorists paid to Orange county more than $20,000 in fines during 1923, to say nothing of time lost and the expense of attorneys' fees.

Is it not time to ask 'What's the Matter?'

"The other way has failed. Why not try the 'good will to men' method?"

WOMAN COOKS FOR FOUR U.S. PRESIDENTS

WASHINGTON, Jan. 26.—Mrs. Mulvey was cook in the household of the late J. P. Morgan, sr., in New York, and Mrs. William Howard Taft, knowing President Taft's liking for good food, prepared properly, brought her to the White House and said: "There you are! You are monarch of all you survey."

When President Taft went out of office and President Wilson came in, Mrs. Mulvey naturally thought her term of service was ended, too. But although the retiring executive was a Republican and the incoming one a Democrat, their wives could see no reason why politics should have anything to do with the coffee and toast at the executive mansion.

"Do you suppose if I asked Mrs. Mulvey to stay she'd do it?" Mrs. Wilson asked Mrs. Taft.

"I hate to lose her, but it's more important that she work here than in a private home," Mrs. Taft replied. "I'll help you interview her."

A three-party talkfest was held, and the conclusion of it was that Mrs. Mulvey reigned on in the White House. She stayed there during both the Wilson terms, then became Mrs. Harding's most important under officer, and now is serving in a similar capacity for Mrs. Coolidge.

Mrs. Mulvey was born in Sweden something more than fifty years ago. She has been cooking ever since she can remember, but she is extremely modest about it all. She realizes to the fullest extent the dignity of her position and has invested it with a sort of sanctity that is entirely pardonable when you consider the personages, American and foreign, whom she has served. Her proudest moments come when some world-known celebrity insists on making his way below stairs to tell her personally how good her food tasted.

"They do that often, too," she tells her friends. "You'd be surprised if I named to you the important personages I've shaken hands with and who have asked me receipts for this and that and the other dish. I wouldn't trade my job with anybody."

Married Policeman

Mrs. Mulvey is main figure in a romance of the White House, too. She was working hard on her job there when she met James Mulvey, a special policeman, who had been guarding presidents for twenty-five years. This was during the Taft administration.

Mulvey figured it out, and not unreasonably, that if this plump, attractive motherly sort of person could cook food that satisfied the nation's chief executive she ought to be able to provide tasty portions of ham and eggs and pork and beans that would look well on the dining table of one of the president's guards.

"Will you marry me?" he said.

"I will," she answered.

"You can't leave me," Mrs. Taft pleaded in considerable apprehension when she heard the news.

Accordingly Mrs. Mulvey fixed it up with James so she would keep her White House position, and now the Mulvey family is a completely happy one.

NORTHERN FEUD TO END WITH 2 HANGINGS

WINNIPEG, Man., Jan. 26.—The final chapter of an Arctic feud, caused by the desire of a white man to marry an Eskimo maiden, will be written in the barracks of the Royal Canadian Mounted Police at Herschel Island February 1. On that date Alik Omia and "Eskimo" Tetamang of the uncivilized copper Eskimo tribe of Prince Albert sound, will be hanged for the killing of Corporal Doak of the mounted, and Otto Binder, a trader of Coronation gulf.

Binder, in his quest for the treasures of the north, met and loved a girl who already was betrothed to a member of her tribe. But the adventurous white man had made friends among the inhabitants of the bleak and barren regions and the tribe was divided as to who should win the hand of the daughter of the Arctic. Bitter feeling grew into hatred and tragedy was the result. Besides the two white men, several Eskimos were killed, including a 4-year-old girl who was strangled to death after her parents had been murdered and the tribe did not want a charge on their hands.

Corporal Doak was killed by Omia, whom he had arrested for his part in the feud.

In the unique setting of the Arctic island post of the mounted police, five persons were tried before a jury of steamboat men, trappers and traders. Ekootuk, medicine woman and sorceress, was found guilty of manslaughter and sentenced to one year's imprisonment, while two others were released.

1. Pikes Peak Motor

DEVELOPED on the highest automobile climb in the world, this famous power plant has made the Chandler an unquestioned performance champion. No stock car, regardless of cost or class, has ever held so many official high gear records; or masters with such consummate ease the difficulties of operation in traffic.

In addition to its spectacular high gear capacity, the Pikes Peak Motor displays amazing powers of acceleration and operates with flawless smoothness at all speeds.

2. Traffic Transmission

THIS exclusive Chandler feature has created a furor in the automotive world. Without the use of buttons or electrical appliances, it eliminates all gear shifting evils. By certain changes in the gear box, Chandler has made it impossible for any driver to clash gears or to fail in an attempted speed change.

Shift lever and clutch are used exactly as before. The amazing ease of driving thus provided, has delighted thousands.

3. New Sedans at Lower Prices

FOR 1924 Chandler has produced a line of new sedans that narrow the price gap between touring cars and closed cars almost to the point of disappearance. Sedan bodies of such genuine beauty and durability have never been obtainable at so slight an extra cost over touring models.

In grace of line, excellence of detail, and structural solidity, the new bodies are characteristic of Fisher's unequalled mastery of the coach builder's art.

MAIL ROBBERY
CASE DELAYED
FOR WEEKInstrument Used
By S. A. Man Gets
Oil Well Credit

Preliminary hearing of J. R. Abernathy, Charles R. Wheeler and J. L. Findlay, charged with the $25,000 mail robbery at Anaheim, was today continued by United States Commissioner Maurice Enders for one week, to await the outcome of a federal grand jury probe.

In its issue of last Monday, a copy of which reached here today, the News says Carrillo's instrument pointed to oil in a district which had been abandoned and which geologists had declared "dry" territory.

Carrillo and his wife now are at Hutchinson, where they have been since July last.

Carrillo, who, with his wife left here last July, has located a number of wells in Southern California with success, it is said. He was one of the locators of the well being drilled on the W. K. Robinson ranch, in Trabuco canyon, by the Tepatol Oil company.

The hearing, scheduled to be held here today at 10 a. m., was continued to February 2, at 10 a. m.

Delay was granted at request of the federal authorities, who wanted to await the findings of the grand jury, which heard evidence in the case early this week.

The grand jury is expected to resume its sessions and make a report on the case next week.

Should the grand jury return an indictment, it was pointed out, the preliminary hearing before a commissioner would be unnecessary as the case could be taken before federal court on the indictment.

However, should no indictment be returned, the local hearing would be held, it was understood.

The defense made no effort to have the hearing delayed although justified in asking for a continuance, it was said, because the grand jury probe is pending. Attorney W. F. Menton, representing Abernathy and Wheeler, stated that his clients had no objection to holding the hearing today or next week.

SAYS BOOTLEGGER POOR

DENVER, Jan. 25.—The popular conception of bootleggers, placing them as kings of finance, is all wrong, said Robert Kohlross, divisional prohibition agent in Denver. "Ninety per cent, at least, of bootleggers can't even pay their own fines when they get caught," Kohlross averred.

TIRED OF WAITING

LOS ANGELES, Jan. 25.—A red-headed woman passenger in Charles Avis' taxicab climbed over the rear seat and drove away with his car while he was in a garage, Avis mournfully reported to the police.

BURNS PROVE FATAL

LOS ANGELES, Jan. 25.—Mrs. Francis Leonis, grandmother of Marie Mosquini, film actress, died here late yesterday from injuries received earlier in the day when her clothing caught fire. Miss Mosquini and other members of the family were at her bedside when she died.

As only 1000 guests were expected and prepared for, there were rough scenes, at the entrance and the wardrobe places where men and women shivered in their thin garments while they were trying to put away or procure their wraps.

Some had their thin silky garments almost torn off and others revealed big rips. Finally police had to be called in order to restore a semblance of order to the ante-rooms.

Notwithstanding this the "pajama ball" was voted a huge success. There will be from one to three balls every night in Vienna during the next six weeks.

Talbert

TALBERT, Jan. 26.—Fire of unknown origin completely destroyed the six room dwelling on the ranch of Mrs. Jaques, northeast of Talbert.

Mr. Miller, who sometime ago had leased the ranch for three years from Mrs. Jaques who resides at Anaheim, had just the past week sub-leased the ranch for the time of the unexpired lease to Mr. Harper, and was preparing to move to the oil field where he is employed. Harper had just moved his dairy here from Bolsa. The house had just been freshly painted and papered and both families were occupying the house when the fire occurred.

The flames gained headway so rapidly that but one sanitary couch out of the furniture and belongings of the Miller and Harper families was saved from the building.

It was not possible to learn at this writing whether the building was insured or what the estimated loss was.

Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Staub are the proud parents of a son, born Wednesday night.

The interior of the Charles Ward home is being redecorated this week. Mr. Burley is doing the work.

When the work of changing the large outlet pipe of the Talbert drainage district got under way, it was found that instead of the pipe having worn to such a degree that it did not serve the desired purpose, a number of large sticks had caught in the pipe, clogging it up.

As the route of the state highway goes directly over the flood gates making a change of the outlet a necessity of the near future, it was decided when prevailing conditions were discovered to make no further changes further than removing the debris at present.

The Newbert Protection district's dredger and pile driver are both employed on the river just east of the Jaques ranch where the banks are being reconstructed. The protection work has been progressing steadily and it is understood that the program of work for this season is nearing completion.

The clearing out of Bermuda grass from the fields hereabouts is in general, the dry weather giving an unusual chance for this. Sam

Talbert has five grass plows running in his fields at present.

Mr. and Mrs. Penrod and family and Sam Landrum, who arrived in Talbert Christmas night from Missouri, have moved to Talbert to reside. The newcomers, after visiting relatives here a few days, went

Brea, and this week they moved back and are located on the Masters' ranch.

Quite a good deal of the barley planted on the mesa is up but it is badly in need of rain and is growing slowly as a result.

Mrs. Hiram Proctor who has been very ill for weeks and who for a time was in a very critical condition is now gaining rapidly and is able to be up and about the house once more.

Mr. and Mrs. C. Burley are doing

some further improving on their place this week. It is but a short time since they moved the house

in and the other improvements

have been going in steadily since

Mr. Mary Elliott who has been on the sick list was able to enjoy a drive Thursday.

The Japanese farmer, Geshia,

who has some of the Wardlow land

in celery made a shipment this week. He is getting 35 cents per dozen for his celery.

The dirt roads south of Talbert have been sprinkled this week to lay the dust which was getting quite heavy. This was made necessary as the road was recently graded up and with the absence of rain

it does not take long for it to get almost impassable for dust.

The contract which S. E. Talbert

of this place has with the Pacific

Electric company for clearing off

the loose sand which has drifted onto their right-of-way is to be completed this week. There was a strip of about three miles and a quarter included in the contract.

The work of grading and leveling

on the Clemens' tract, west of Westminster on which S. E. Talbert has a crew of men and teams employed is nearing completion.

A STILL FINER SINGLE-SIX
Unchanged in Fundamentals

The improvements which make the new model Packard Single-Six a still finer car are not fundamental changes.

Perhaps the most striking improvement in the Single-Six is the adoption of four-wheel brakes—which the Packard Straight-Eight was the first prominent American car to carry.

To insure even greater durability, still longer life, the new model Single-Six is provided with a heavier transmission. It is exceptionally quiet and smooth in operation.

Steering has been made even easier than before. The steering wheel has also been enlarged.

You will note an improvement in appearance due to the fact that the artillery type wheels are of heavier construction.

As in the Straight-Eight, the battery has been enclosed in a theft-proof box and located on the running board, where it is more accessible.

You will find in the Single-Six the same brilliancy in every phase of performance; the same brilliant beauty of design and color, which make this Packard, in the opinion of all America, the finest six-cylinder car in the world.

The new Single-Six awaits your inspection. We will gladly send a car to your home or office for a demonstration.

BAR LOVE DIARY IN OCCULT OIL BUNKO CASE

An asserted love diary, in which the heart and business affairs of R. H. L. Noaks, alleged promoter of the local "occult oil pool" were said to have been closely linked, was denied admittance as evidence at the preliminary hearing of Noaks on an embezzlement charge, it was learned here today in reports from Los Angeles where the hearing is under way.

After hearing testimony of Miss Lenora Wing, alleged social companion of Noaks and owner of the diary; also that of Mrs. Alice Harnsworth, who claimed to have been swindled in Noaks' promotion scheme, Justice Walter Hanby late yesterday continued the hearing on Monday.

The defense of Noaks was able to bar introduction of Miss Wing's diary as evidence to show that Noaks spent the money collected from women investors upon other women social favorites. Miss Wing testified orally, however, that Noaks had spent large sums upon her, besides buying a costly motor car and a diamond ring during the time she knew him.

The money thus lavished, the prosecution claims, was embezzled from women who invested their savings with Noaks in his asserted plan to develop oil on the J. J. Mueller ranch near Santa Ana, where Mme. Hilla Vacha, Hindu woman, claimed to have discovered the oil through her occult powers.

VOTERS' ROLLS SHOW FOURTH REGISTERED

In announcing figures showing that 9,425 voters in the county have already registered since January 1 for the 1924 elections, County Clerk J. M. Backs today ascribed the early rush to the preferential primary election on May 6, and to the fact that in various sections of the county special elections on local issues, such as school bonds or sanitary districts, were slated for the near future.

In approximately four weeks that the books have been open, nearly a fourth of the expected total registration for the year has already been filed, according to the figures announced. Backs has predicted a total registration of 40,000 for the year.

Republicans provided more than two-thirds of the registration for the first four weeks, the figures being:

Democrat, 2,044.

'BONUS TO FARMERS IN FREIGHT RATES'

CHICAGO, Jan. 26.—The increase in the value of farm crops within the last two years has had an effect on the income of farmers equivalent to what would have been produced if the railroads in 1923 had wiped out all of the freight rates on farm crops and in addition, had given the farmers of the country a bonus of $200,000,000," the Railway Age, railroad publication, says in its current issue.

"Radical public men," the publication said, "have been telling the farmers for years that their troubles were principally due to high freight rates. If this was true two years ago, then the farmers as a whole have no troubles at all now because within the last two years the increase in the value of farm crops was 322 per cent greater, or over four times more than the total freight rates paid on them in 1923."

Figures used were said to have been based on statistics of the interstate commerce commission and federal department of agriculture.

The pigmy camel belongs to a species found only in western Persia. It is only five feet high and snow white.

DODGE BROTHERS TYPE-B SEDAN

To the admirable sturdiness and all-year protection of this Sedan, Dodge Brothers have added refinements which further enhance its value and desirability.

The car is long and low, with deep seats and abundant leg room. New springs—underslung in the rear—add immeasurably to the comfort of riding.

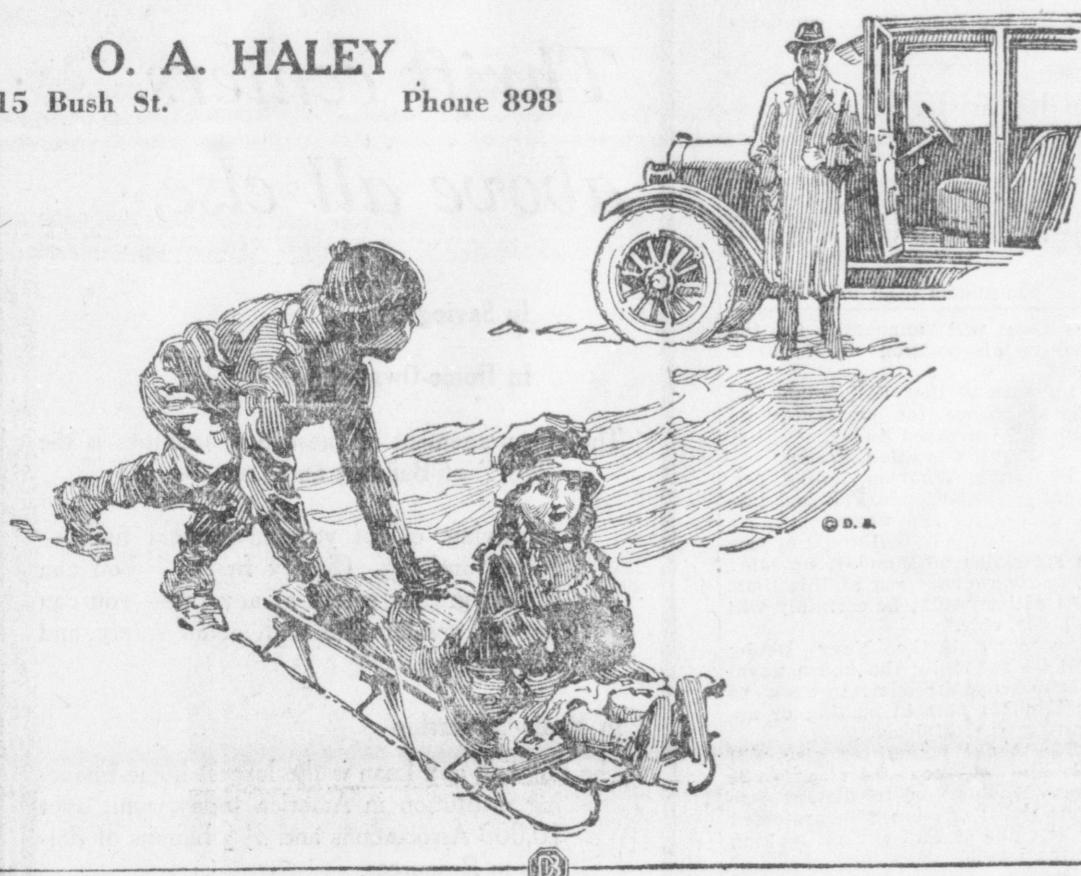

With these and other notable improvements, the Type-B Sedan will distinctly appeal to those who demand beauty as well as utility in the car they drive.

The price is $1250 f. o. b. Detroit—$1475 delivered.

WOMAN'S STORY SHAKES FAITH IN PREACHER

(By United Press Leased Wire)

CHICAGO, Jan. 26.—The faith and confidence which members of the fashionable First Baptist church of Oak Park held in their pastor, the Rev. Carl D. Case, appeared shaken today by the testimony of Mrs. Charlotte Leland in her husband's suit for divorce.

Once solidly united in defense of their pastor's reputation, the parishioners today were uncertain and hesitant to take a definite stand for or against Dr. Case.

Following Mrs. Leland's admission of intimacies with her pastor, the Rev. Case announced he would not occupy the pulpit at tomorrow's services, but would attend with his wife.

Visiting Preacher.

Professor A. G. Baker, of the University of Chicago, will preach the sermon.

Mrs. Leland took the stand late yesterday and started her long story, relating all the details of her association with Rev. Case.

Mrs. Leland said that Rev. Case patted her ankle in his study once. One time when she remarked to him that her georgette appeared thin, she said he answered it was not thin enough.

In the unique position of striving to prove that she broke the marriage vows rather than "hide the truth," Mrs. Leland told her story frankly and simply.

Telling the court of how she confessed her misconduct to her husband, Mrs. Leland said:

"I told him Dr. Case had kissed my hand."

"What else did you tell your husband?" Attorney F. A. Brown, friend of the court, asked.

Described Scene.

"I told him the first time Dr. Case put his hands on me."

"Where did he put his hands on you?"

"On my neck."

The witness then described the scene in the pastor's study at the parish house.

"What did you tell your husband next?"

"I told him that Dr. Case put his arms around me and kissed me on the forehead and cheek."

"How many times did he kiss you?"

"Once. And then I kissed him on the lips just as I would kiss a friend—impulsively."

Mrs. Leland will take the stand at the reopening of court Monday and complete her testimony.

GIRL ACCUSES TEACHER OF PLOTTING

ALBION, Mich., Jan. 26.—A pretty girl of twenty-four sat in the deserted office of Dr. John W. Laird, president of Albion college and storm center in a student-faculty revolt, and wept as she defied the accusers of the handsome young college head.

She is Miss Mildred Mapley, secretary to Dr. Laird, one of the little group which still stands by him. She is one of the girls alleged to have been on the automobile party recently which resulted in the expulsion of Vera Tomlinson of Detroit.

The charges against Miss Tomlinson were that on this party she smoked cigarettes and drank. She admitted the charges, according to Dr. Laird, and in turn accused Miss Mapley of unbecoming conduct.

This Miss Mapley denied.

"It is false from beginning to end," she cried. "I admit I was on the party, but there was not a thing out of the way about it. It is just a scheme of this Tomlinson girl to make trouble for me because I am connected with Dr. Laird's office. For some reason she does not like Dr. Laird."

Miss Mapley's eyes flashed and she clenched her fists when questioned about the charges made by Miss Tomlinson that Dr. Laird had attempted to make love to her. This charge, it is understood, is one of the most serious contained in those placed before Dr. Laird at his recent conference at Detroit with Bishop Theodore S. Henderson when he was asked to resign.

Miss Tomlinson, it was learned today from both friends and enemies of Dr. Laird, charged that he attempted to embrace and kiss her several times. Sorority sisters of Miss Tomlinson charge that this is the real reason behind her dismissal and that the question of cigarettes did not enter into it at all. Miss Mapley defended Dr. Laird as "one of the most honorable men I ever knew."

Shotgun Law' Is Upheld By Jurors

KANSAS CITY, Mo., Jan. 26.—The "shotgun law" was upheld by a jury in the acquittal of Hugh B. Hooker, 40, of the charge of murdering Eugene Peoples, 22, his daughter's suitor, November 4, in Bonner Springs, Kan.

The trial was in Judge E. L. Fischer's division of the Wyandotte county district court.

The jury deliberated two hours. W. R. Honnall, member of the Kansas City, Kansas board of education, was foreman.

According to the testimony, Marjorie Hooker, 18, told her father Saturday night, November 3, Peoples had attacked her. The next morning Hooker went to the house where Peoples was living. He called him outside.

After a short argument, which ended in a tussle, Hooker shot Peoples with a shotgun. He died almost immediately.

JOHNSON CAMP CHALLENGES COOLIDGE

LOS ANGELES, Jan. 26.—Hiram Johnson's managers welcome the opportunity to "go to the mat" with Calvin Coolidge's supporters, they said today, following the receipt of dispatches announcing that friends of the President would enter his name in the primaries in this state.

"California's presidential preference primary, coming only a little more than a month before the national convention, will furnish the final test prior to the main event," declared Dell A. Schweitzer, president of the Johnson-for-President club of Los Angeles.

"It is going to give the final answer to the question of whether the people of the nation wish to endorse the policies of the present administration or to give approval to the policies espoused by Senator Johnson. We have every confidence in the result."

Schweitzer called attention to the fact that when the California solon announced his candidacy two months ago he threw down the managers by challenging them to come to California and take their chances in a direct vote of the people.

Appeals to People.

"In demanding a 'popular choice' by the Republican voters," said the local leader, "Mr. Johnson used these words: 'I believe the rank and file of the party have the right to express their preference for their presidential candidate. I am seeking to have that preference expressed. I'll accept the result with equanimity, but I insist that the rank and file, rather than a few politicians, shall determine the result. Theoretically, under our system the people themselves shall select their president. Those states with presidential preference primaries not only recognize this

KANSAS VETERANS SPARSE

TOPEKA, Jan. 26.—Civil war veterans, who at one time in the '80s and '90s made up the bulk of the citizenry of Southwestern Kansas, are now almost all gone, some counties being almost without the "boys in blue." In most of the counties in that part of the state there are not enough veterans now to maintain G. A. R. posts. In Ness county there are only four survivors of the Civil war, although that county was settled almost wholly by the ex-soldiers of the '60s.

theory but put it into practice. They preserve the spirit as well as the letter of American institutions.

It is an American's birthright to submit himself and his political ties to his fellow citizens."

"How different is the attitude of Hiram Johnson from that of the President," continued Schweitzer.

"Mr. Johnson insists that the Republican voters shall select the candidate as well as elect him; in seeking to nominate their candidate the Coolidge managers rely upon the hand-picked Southern delegations, made up principally of federal office-holders appointed by the President.

Wants Fair Expression.

"Everywhere, throughout the nation, the Coolidge managers are doing all in their power to prevent a fair expression of the voters. It took two lawsuits in South Dakota to get Mr. Johnson's name on the ballot there. Mr. Coolidge's supporters do not wish the people to decide the issue, either in South Dakota or in any other state. They want the Republican candidate picked by the professional politicians and not by the Republican voters at large."

"In every previous campaign the representatives of special privilege, including the power companies, invariably have predicted Hiram Johnson's overwhelming defeat in California. The same predictions are being made in the present campaign. We are glad the Coolidge forces have decided to enter the battle. We await the verdict of the members of the Republican party. California once more will give a definite and conclusive answer to a waiting nation."

Another Reason Why —

The Buick Third Member

Buick cars drive through a third member, not the springs. The springs only support the body and assure easy riding. A Buick rear spring accidentally broken cannot misalign the axle and prevent driving the car. The Buick axle remains in fixed position. Consequently the adjustment of Buick four-wheel brakes is not affected by the deflection of the springs.

DRAWS HEAVILY HERE

"The Covered Wagon," Famous Film of Winning of West, to Close Monday Night

There is no more interesting story to Americans than one relating to our interior development such as Emerson Hough uncovers in his marvelous narrative of "The Covered Wagon." With its tales of adventure, love and romance linked to a period of history more colorful than war and more lasting than bloody conflict it stands out distinctive in literature and drama.

For its first season its runs in New York, Chicago, Boston and Los Angeles have created a furor everywhere and it stands today the most popular and the best discussed of all motion picture productions since and including "The Birth of a Nation."

"The Covered Wagon" will be presented here tonight, tomorrow and Monday, matinee and evening at the Temple theater, exactly as given in the leading cities where it has been played to date. The cast is an exceptionally strong one including Lois Wilson, J. Warren Kerrigan, Tully Marshall, Ernest Torrence, Ethel Wales, Alan Hale, Charles Ogle, Johnny Fox, thousands of Indians and the never to be forgotten "pirate schooners."

A special score is played in accompaniment by twenty selected musicians from the adaptations of Hugo Reisenfeld who supervised this detail of the production.

Hough takes a simple love story of heart interest and adventure as the basis upon which he works his larger theme of bringing out the wonder story of how the heart of America was developed. It is the narrative of the hardships and adventures of those early pioneers who followed the Oregon trail westward in 1843 and in Utah reached a dividing line, some going to the gold fields of California and others northward to Oregon and Washington.

All tickets to the evening shows are by reservation but those to the matinees are not sold previous to the opening of the doors.

CHARLES RAY FILM CLOSES RUN HERE TONIGHT.

Since D. W. Griffith's "The Birth of a Nation" there has been no motion picture dealing strictly and authentically with American history on an elaborate scale until "The Covered Wagon" appeared and proved anew the tremendous appeal of actual human experiences when used for screen material.

Now, however, there has been produced by Charles Ray "The Courtship of Myles Standish," which not only vivifies the immortal characters of Longfellow's epic poem, but also spans the great adventure of the Pilgrim Fathers. The picture closes at the West End tonight.

"WONDERS OF THE SEA" AT PRINCESS TONIGHT.

J. E. Williamson's remarkable photodrama, "Wonders of the Sea," showing at the Princess, was made possible by the Williamson Submarine Tube System and presents both scientific and dramatic features which will make a new era in motion picture history.

The picture teems with enthralling scenes enacted on the bottom of the ocean. Divers descending to battle with giant octopuses and other monsters of the deep, are recorded on motion picture films by a cameraman concealed in the observation chamber of the Williamson Submarine Tube System fathoms below the surface.

"JUST OFF BROADWAY" AT YOST MONDAY.

Full of romance of Paris and New York, centering about a band of international crooks and an American secret service operative, the picture, "Just Off Broadway," comes to the Yost Monday.

John Gilbert has the leading role, with Marian Nixon playing opposite. The balance of the cast consists of Ben Hendricks Jr., Trilby Clark and Pierre Gendron.

"FLAMING YOUTH" CLOSES AT YOST TONIGHT.

The hazards that beset the care-free modern flapper with her over-confident belief that she can always take care of herself are dramatically exposed in "Flaming Youth," which closes tonight at the Yost theater.

Patricia Fentress, the capricious heroine, portrayed by Colleen Moore, is the sort who thinks herself equal to any emergency. She also has an idea that matrimony is injurious to romance and so tells the man who asks her to be his wife.

Later she tells another whom she thinks she loves that she won't marry him and is pleased with his answer: "I should hope not. That would kill the poetry of our love." She accepts his invitation to go on a yachting party and finds a merry gathering of revellers abroad. Then, when she realizes what her rash act entails, she escapes through a porthole and drops into the sea.

Realization of the folly of her false standards follows her rescue.

"BLINKY" COMING TO PRINCESS SUNDAY.

Thrills of army life, spectacular races over the cactus-studded desert at the Mexican border, exciting battles and pursuits mingled with ludicrous falls, trials and tribulations of a "shevatel" getting his baptism of military training, feature "Blinky" a production starring Hoot Gibson, which will be shown at the Princess theater Sunday.

Assigned to his father's old cavalry outfit, he proceeds to the border where hilarious troubles await him. They start when he meets the hard-boiled major of the Eleventh Cavalry—and continue when he takes his first riding lesson, ending in an undignified and painful position in a clump of cactus.

"THE SILENT COMMAND" HERE TOMORROW

A list of the high lights of action in the spectacular feature picture "The Silent Command" coming to the West End theater tomorrow, seems to indicate that there are enough thrills, unusual locations and dramatic incidents in this screen play to make a dozen ordinary pictures.

There are scenes in which the Atlantic Fleet plays an important part. The Panama Canal also figures prominently in the plot. Washington, Annapolis and New York are all scenes of novel and interesting incidents in the development of the story.

The part of Captain Richard Dochter, the heroic naval officer who is given the silent command, is played by Edmund Lowe. Alma Tell plays opposite him, as his devoted wife.

Martha Mansfield is the beautiful decoy who undertakes to trap Decatur.

"THE DESTROYING ANGEL" AT YOST TOMORROW

Admirers of Leah Baird, the fascinating screen star, will be eager to see her in her latest success "The Destroying Angel," which comes to the Yost theater tomorrow. Miss Baird has long been recognized as one of the most convincing and powerful actresses of the screen, but even her friends had hardly suspected the brilliant comedy talents she discloses in this fine picturization of Louis Joseph Vance's enthralling story.

Dancing will still continue at West Newport club house every Saturday night. Dysarts Orchestra. Phone 792-J, Santa Ana.

KOLB AND DILL NEXT

Two Popular Comedians Coming To Yost Theater In New Vehicle Thursday

"A Big Reward," the latest comedy from the pen of Aaron Hoffman will be the offering of Kolb and Dill, who come to the Yost theater here Thursday night, January 31. A special Kolb and Dill orchestra under the leadership of Leo Flanders, accompanies the comedy.

"A Big Reward" was built chiefly for the purposes of laughter. The story concerns the attempts of detectives, both amateur and professional, to discover the true identity of a clever picture thief known as "The Baron" suspected of stealing the priceless work of art from the Metropolitan Museum. Kolb and Dill have found perfect-fitting roles in this latest Hoffman comedy. Kolb, the long, lean funster, has the role of a gay "man about town," while his roly-poly associate, Dill, is seen as a smart waiter in a big New York hotel. The eternal conflict between the pair provides a maximum of laughter which continues throughout to a surprising climax.

“SOUTH COAST PARK” OPENING SALE SUNDAY, JAN. 27

THOUSANDS of people have passed through this “Beauty Spot” and inquired as to when this high-class property would be ready for sale. The South Coast Land Company, owner and subdivider of Del Mar, South Coast Park, Carlsbad, Avocado Lands and Palisades, has repeatedly refused to consider the sale of this property until water was available. LAKE HODGES DAM, one of the largest reservoirs in the State, now provides this tract with pure mountain water.

SOIL: The soil is “VIRGIN” sandy loam, deep, warm and fertile.

CLIMATE: Like the famous Carlsbad district which is just to the north.

CROPS: Avocados, bulbs, flowers, ferns, Kadota figs, persimmons and lemons will grow here to perfection, while two OUT-OF-SEASON crops of vegetables may be grown at fine profit.

SUCCESS: The wonderful success and prosperity of our Carlsbad district is known all over the state. Be assured that we offer and recommend nothing that cannot be brought to a complete success.

UNIT NO. ONE. We offer for your consideration a splendid selection, consisting of tracts of all sizes from 1-2 acre up to 10 acres. Nearly all the 1-2 acre tracts have one or more beautiful Monterey Cypress trees on the street line. Acre tracts as level as a floor; tracts of 2½ to 5 acres, on a slight slope, affording a magnificent view of sea and mountains; building knolls of from 3 to 4 acres, all have the same deep, warm soil and all have pure mountain water delivered by gravity.

PRICES and TERMS will be most reasonable, but will be advanced very promptly. The early buyer therefore, will have not only the choice of selections but will be assured of early and handsome profit.

Be sure to meet us Sunday at tract on Coast Highway five miles south of Carlsbad, thirty-three miles north of San Diego and fifty-eight miles south of Santa Ana.

COURT ALLOWS UNWRITTEN LAW USE

BERLIN, Jan. 26.—“The Unwritten Law,” “The Borrowed Wife,” “The Ungrateful Lothario.”

These might well be titles for a drama rivaling any fiction story that was unrolled before a jury in a murder trial at Hagen, Westphalia. The trial was also one of the few instances in Germany where the “unwritten law” was successfully invoked to justify an admitted killing, and the spectators showed their approval of the verdict of “not guilty” by prolonged applause.

The defendant was Herr Soerries, a manufacturer of Hagen, who was accused of having shot down his friend, Herr Schulte, owner of a large estate at Einsal, near Hagen.

About 10 years ago Schulte was in financial trouble and begged Soerries to help him. The latter did, advanced large sums of money and saved Schulte’s estate from the sheriff’s sale.

The two became very friendly, and soon Schulte, who was a bachelor, was a welcome guest at Soerries’ home.

After a while Schulte began to complain that his estate lacked the supervising care of a woman’s hand and succeeded in persuading Soerries to send Mrs. Soerries to Einsal for a few weeks “to look after things.” Mrs. Soerries objected at first, but yielded finally and went to Einsal, not only for a few weeks but for months. Every year these visits were repeated, some years several times.

Inevitably, rumors involving Mrs. Soerries and Schulte began to float about, and soon came to the ears of Soerries. The latter asked his friend about them, but received such positive denials from Schulte as well as Mrs. Soerries, that he put his suspicions aside. For years the friendship went on. Mrs. Soerries continued to go to Einsal every summer, and took her children with her during vacation time, while Schulte didn’t fail to supply his friend in the city with the best delicacies his estate produced.

Then one of the sons of Soerries found a letter from Schulte in his mother’s brief case, from which it was evident that intimate relations had existed between Mrs. Soerries and Schulte for many years. The son immediately showed the letter to his father.

Radio Questions and Answers

(Note: Send in your radio problems to The Register’s Radio Department and your question will be answered in the following Saturday issue of The Register by the technical committee of Radiocraft, the local radio dealers organization.)

QUESTION: How may I eliminate some of the noises from three stages of audio frequency?—O. R. N. W. Pine St.

ANSWER: The third stage should be entirely shielded on all sides, if possible, and grounded. If the cores of all the A. F. transformers are grounded it will help to a great extent. It is possible that the “B” battery is the cause of a good deal of trouble. Fluctuating voltage from the “B” battery, although not noticeable in the detector, will be very much in evidence on three stages. A radio frequently choke oil, consisting of 75 turns of wire on a 2 inch tube, placed in the grid circuit of the third amplifying tube will be beneficial. In such an amplifier the turns ratio of the second and third transformers should not exceed 3 to 1.

QUESTION: What is a two-circuit tuner?

ANSWER: The two-circuit tuner shown herewith is non-regenerative and consists of an inductively coupled primary and secondary circuit, such as shown in the diagram. A vario-coupler or loose coupler may be used as the tuner and the variable condenser serves the same function as it does in the single circuit tuner.

The variable condenser in parallel with the secondary is used to tune that circuit so that it will have the same value as the primary circuit, an important item in “balancing up” this particular set.

Success: The wonderful success and prosperity of our Carlsbad district is known all over the state. Be assured that we offer and recommend nothing that cannot be brought to a complete success.

UNIT NO. ONE. We offer for your consideration a splendid selection, consisting of tracts of all sizes from 1-2 acre up to 10 acres. Week Commencing January 27, 1924

Sunday, January 27

10:00 a. m.—Sermon by Mrs. Annie Rix Militz, pastor of Home of Truth.

10:30 to 12:30 p. m.—Organ recital and entire religious service from the First Methodist Episcopal Church, Arthur
Blakely, organist.

7:00 to 7:30 p. m.—Organ recital from First Methodist Episcopal church.

8:00 to 10:00 p. m.—Program arranged by Edgard Murphy,
bass and manager of Community Broadcasters of Pasadena,
assisted by Gilmore Brown Players, presenting three-act play, “The Importance of Being Earnest,” by Oscar Wilde.
Howard Griffin, violinist, sonata of Gail Mills Dismitt, soprano.

The two became very friendly,
and soon Schulte, who was a bachelor, was a welcome guest at Soerries’ home.

After a while Schulte began to complain that his estate lacked the supervising care of a woman’s hand and succeeded in persuading Soerries to send Mrs. Soerries to Einsal for a few weeks “to look after things.” Mrs. Soerries objected at first, but yielded finally and went to Einsal, not only for a few weeks but for months. Every year these visits were repeated,
some years several times.

Inevitably, rumors involving Mrs.
Soerries and Schulte began to float about, and soon came to the ears of Soerries. The latter asked his friend about them, but received such positive denials from Schulte as well as Mrs. Soerries, that he put his suspicions aside. For years the friendship went on. Mrs. Soerries continued to go to Einsal every summer, and took her children with her during vacation time, while Schulte didn’t fail to supply his friend in the city with the best delicacies his estate produced.

EVENING SALUTATION
"I envy not the monarch's power,
Nor yet the crown that decks his head;
Far sweeter is the yeoman's sleep.
Who rests upon his labor's bed.
Friends hold me dear, if I have friends,
Nor fail me on adversity's tide;
I fear no man—coward's stroke
Where traitors—with my soldiers ride!"

A COMMUNITY DUTY

Santa Ana has entered upon its second Y. M. C. A. campaign with a high degree of enthusiasm. The attitude of the workers fully sustains the board of directors in the very excellent work that it has done in the construction of a building, and sustains the board in having built the Y. M. C. A. building for the future, rather than making it just large enough to meet present needs.

The final effort is now being put forth for the payment of the cost of the building. And while that effort is being put forth, The Register desires to bring to the mind of every resident of Santa Ana and its environs the fact that the Y. M. C. A. has become a community asset, and has a substantial value in the life of the community, in relation to property, for through it Santa Ana is made a better place in which to live.

The Y. M. C. A. therefore is an institution that has every right to look to every resident of the city for a measure of support. Subscriptions should come from here, there and everywhere, in proportion as one is able to give.

Our community pride is at stake. The building must be paid for. The city cannot afford to have it go forth that it was unable to meet the Y. M. C. A.'s requirements that the building be either paid for or have pledges on hand for its payment before it is occupied.

WELL WORTH THINKING OVER

One paragraph of the Grand Jury report, filed the other day, has claimed the attention and consideration of careful readers, but it is doubtful if its meaning is quite plain or its significance is fully realized by all. As we interpret it, it means that, while the Grand Jury does not feel justified in making a forthright recommendation to that effect, it evidently thinks the school districts of the county are spending, or may spend, too much money in the ornamentation of school buildings, the beautification of school grounds and for modern school equipment and paraphernalia. Here is what the report says:

While this body feels that the expenditure of school moneys is largely dependent upon the wishes of the citizens of the respective school districts, we believe it is our duty to call the attention of all trustees to the fact that the proper education of our children is our first obligation—the elaboration and beautification of school plants comes afterwards. Inasmuch as our school expenditures have advanced by leaps and bounds during the past decade, we feel strongly that the most careful consideration should be given by all our citizens and trustees to the proper expenditure of our school funds for educational purposes.

This paragraph is reprinted here for two reasons; first, because it is both interesting and important, and therefore should be brought prominently to the attention of taxpayers; and, second, because it should be analyzed and discussed on its merits.

The Grand Jury is not alone in the tentative opinion it so delicately expresses in this matter, and the warning it sounds is wholesome and timely. As a general theorem, "the proper education of our children is our first obligation—the elaboration and beautification of school plants comes afterwards." But until elaboration and beautification are over done, or done at the expense of the fundamentals of education, we should be slow to discourage so essential a part of education as the creation and cultivation of the love of beauty. Indeed it is doubtful that, within reasonable bounds, "the elaboration and beautification of school plants" is ever accomplished at the expense of "the education of our children", and the community educational value of beautiful public grounds and buildings is beyond computation.

Moreover, it should be borne in mind—and the Grand Jury seems to have had it in mind—that school trustees probably know the wishes of the taxpayers of their respective districts. Taxpayers are usually pretty wide awake as to the use to which the money they vote for public improvements is put; they usually know before they vote bonds just about what is to be done with their money; and if they didn't approve of first-class fine-looking school buildings, with beautiful grounds, they would not approve bond issues for school purposes with such regularity and (in most instances) with such almost unanimity.

The Register ventures to express its own opinion and, it believes, the opinion of a large majority of the taxpayers, in favor of attractive buildings and beautiful school grounds, so long and to such an extent as they can be provided without seriously burdening the taxpayers or materially impairing fundamental education.

A FUTURE FOR AUTOMOBILES

Automobile advertising leaves the reader with the impression that there is very little farther to go to attain perfection. A model of the first horseless carriage shown alongside a modern automobile rather strengthens the impression. Yet a member of the industry said recently that there are as many possibilities of advance in the technical development of the modern motor car as have taken place since the beginning of the industry.

Such developments comprise changes that will mean greater convenience and comfort, greater economy and performance, greater all-around value.

More and better cars mean more and better transportation, more and better highways. There must be a sounder system of traffic regulation in congested centers, and uniform traffic rules for highways out in the "great open spaces".

The automobile is no more of a luxury in many cases nowadays than railroad trains. Its usefulness is so great and its place in life so assured that it is easy to believe that its development will continue to advance along with all the other factors of civilization.

LUMBER, REVENUE, PARKS

Now that enlightened lumber companies are beginning to treat large stands of timber as a continuous crop rather than a mine, conservation of the nation's forests looks more hopeful. Enlightenment has come to the lumber companies largely through the persistent efforts of conservationists and through rulings of the U. S. Forest Service. Some of the companies, also, have had the vision to see for themselves the difference between harvesting and renewing a timber crop without injury to the forest and exhausting the supply by ruthless and uncontrolled cutting.

States and municipalities that have gone in for owning their own forests are now finding that the conserved forest is a permanent asset. In time such forests may even begin to pay the local taxes and perform other very valuable services for the public.

Oregon taxpayers, in the counties in which national forests are located, now receive 25 per cent of the revenue from the sale of the forest resources. They are using this money to build more roads and schools. And this income will continue indefinitely as long as the harvesting policy is maintained. Ten per cent of all national forest receipts in Oregon is spent on roads and trails within the forests in question. Furthermore, this policy insures the permanent availability of the forests as public recreation grounds.

Lumber, revenue and pleasure all result from proper forest conservation.

A History Nugget

Fresno Republican

A hearty welcome should be given to the appearance of the "California History Nugget," which is to appear eight times in the year, October to May, as a monthly publication of the California State Historical Association.

This institution, formed during the last year as a permanent agency for research and publication of information regarding California's past, has already issued some valuable monographs on critical and disputed subjects. It begins this monthly as a means of arousing historical interest and is designed to be especially valuable to teachers, students and general readers.

The articles in the first or January number are well distributed. There is a story of the gold discovery, an Indian legend about Mount Shasta, a biography of General John Bidwell and an answers to questions department. And not only is the membership price low, but a special subscription is offered to children of 50 cents a year, in groups of twenty or more.

This state historical association, on its research and publication side, has been, by act of the legislature, made a branch of activity of the University of California, and Professors Bolton and Coy of the history department of the university are its executives. It will receive hearty support from all who recognize the importance of California's past to California's present and future.

Would Revise Tax Method

San Bernardino Sun

State Superintendent Will C. Wood is quoted as declaring for a complete revision of California tax methods, his suggestion being that the system of separating state and county taxes is unwise. He might have said also that it is most unfair, to some counties and to most cities, and the greatest incentive to extravagance in state affairs that could be devised.

The growth of California has, of course, made necessary great increases in the cost of state government, but there would have been no such jump from 1910 to 1923 as has been recorded, if individual property owners were paying state taxes direct. Now we pay them without knowing it. They are collected by tax collectors that we do not see and of whose work we do not stop to think.

Just what Mr. Wood has in mind is not specifically stated, but any change in method could be welcomed by San Bernardino County.

Swing, Tia Juana, The Times

San Bernardino Sun

Congressman Phil Swing has almost pleased the Los Angeles Times. To have completely succeeded in getting by with something that would call for direct and specific approval of the congressman himself is more than is to be hoped for. Political miracles do not happen often nowadays than the other kind. But he at last has done something which the Los Angeles contemporary feels called upon to approve so far as the act is concerned, although from the editorial discussion of the subject one might never guess that the representative from this district had anything to do with it.

Early this week it will be remembered that Mr. Swing called on President Coolidge and urged that the shameless conditions in Tijuana and Mexicali be made the subject of action by the government. At the same time, he presented numerous signed petitions from Southern Californians supplementing the request.

That will not develop any enthusiastic encore from the San Diego Union, but there are thousands of people in San Diego who will say "Amen and Amen" while all over the eleventh district the overwhelming majority of the voters will wish Congressman Swing well on this new crusade.

That Body of Yours

AN UNUSUAL CAUSE
A chap consulted a specialist regarding a severe earache. The specialist made a careful examination during which he was unable to discover any inflammation of the middle ear—the usual cause of earache.

There was no foreign body in the ear. Nor could any ulcer or other trouble be found with the tongue. The teeth were sound and an X-ray taken a week previously showed no decayed teeth. There were no boils or abscesses in the canal, and the physician was puzzled.

As the man talked to the physician, the actual speaking seemed to hurt. The physician took hold of the lower jaw and moved it up and down. The patient nearly cried with the pain.

Does it hurt you to eat? "Yes." Does it hurt you to talk? "Yes."

"Your trouble is rheumatism."

"Rheumatism of the ear?" questioned the man.

"No!" Your rheumatism is in the joint between your lower and upper jaw just under the ear."

And this proved to be the case, as the measures taken to remove the cause of the rheumatism—got rid also of the pain in the ear. You are apt to forget this point when thinking of ear pain, but it is a more common cause than is suspected.

The mouth of modern man is not as large as it was some years back. It would seem that Nature intends to grow our full number of teeth—thirty-two—irrespective of the size of the mouth.

And so the last molar—the wisdom tooth—the one that comes last and goes first, is often greatly crowded for room when it tries to make a place for itself in your mouth.

And this also is a frequent cause of pain in the ear, as these four wisdom teeth try to meet one another on each side right at the joint, between the upper and lower jaws.

And so if you have pain in the ear and there does not seem to be any temperature, nor any local cause in the ear itself, take a look at the spot where your wisdom teeth are located, right at the back of the mouth. If you are young they may be trying to come through. If you are a bit older they may be decaying. However don't overlook the fact that the joint itself—the hinge that swings your lower jaw may have a touch of rheumatism just as any other joint.

In that case look for the cause. It is always there.

"WHEN COLORS SING"

It sounded just at dawning, a silvery note which a bird might make in a rush of gladness—I was happy to think I heard. And yet 'twas an eerie music, it seemed of another sphere, so piercingly sweet and so tender, so muted and yet so clear!

Whence came that long-drawn sweetness? Whence was the piercing strain? My eyes swept the plum tree's branches, woul I hear the bird again? Away to the glowing eastward was a deeply carmine glow, One star still sailed in the heavens like a vessel, stately and slow.

Soft little sprays of spindrift were the clouds which floated light And high in the purple zenith surged in the waves of the night. Purple and rose and azure! Ah, 'twas never a bird! The sound was a morn's awakening—was the roseate dawn I heard!

"Oh, did you hear what that funny, pathetic little woman was saying to me?" breathed Peggy as we threaded our way through the homing crowd at the first night of "Robin Hood," ourselves anxious to hasten back to the lonesome Little Gray House, patiently awaiting our return.

And rippling with amusement, Peggy told of the little old lady's concern over missing a picture show she had set her heart on seeing! Not that she wasn't pleased with the opera. No, indeed, she even declared that she didn't know but that she'd just as soon

Change Our Name—Never!

Santa Ana, Jan. 26, 1924.

Editor Register:

Having read Mr. L. R. Crawford's startling suggestion, in a recent issue of the Register, that the name of our city be changed to "Orange," the writer trusts that all who read the article did "hit the ceiling," as he seemed to expect, but that they landed on their feet and will "stand pat" against such a change.

Mr. Crawford's article sounds all right up to this line, "and name this wonderful community—Orange!" And then he squeezes the orange and lets it drip. We admit that Orange is a tasty name, appealing, as it does, to the appetite. But is this sufficient excuse for the change? And does too much of even a good thing end in satiety? We now have Orange county, the town of Orange, and soon will have Orange County Harbor. Now it is proposed to swallow the city of Orange, and then assume its name, hoping in this way to sooth its injured civic pride.

Mr. Crawford stated that Santa Ana would lose "only" its name, which means nothing. What it would lose would be the distinction of being the only town of its name in the Western Hemisphere, except a city of Salvador. It would lose the historical value of its name, occupying as it does, a portion of the immense Rancho Santiago de Santa Ana, a grant made by the King of Spain to Bernardino Yorba, and one of the four genuine Spanish grants, the other so-called Spanish grants having been made by Mexican governors of California. This means something to students of the history of our county and state, to all native sons and daughters, and to all persons of discrimination.

There is also the appeal of sen-
